Message:

For a state government financed and populated by evangelical Christian nationalists that believe sodomy is a crime, it is baffling to watch those same officials just bend over and take it from the president. They're not even hiding it. To all of the spineless Republicans who agree to redistrict our state five years after we already did it, I recommend a water based lube next time. Easier to clean and feels a lot better when you have Trump's micro up you. Stop being a cuck to his agenda and fight for the people who actually elected you. Your districts and your constituents are going to wither away and die because of your choices. Pull your balls out of your back pocket and stand up to him. I promise your constituents will think greater of you if you actually have a backbone.
