Message:

Hello, my name is Julianne Davis. I firmly oppose any redistricting efforts in Texas that aim to silence or diminish the voices of voters. Every vote should carry the same weight, and every citizen should have an equal opportunity to elect leaders who reflect their values and needs. When districts are redrawn with partisan motives, it erodes public trust in our institutions, discourages civic engagement, and weakens the very foundation of our democracy. Texas is a diverse and rapidly growing state, and our political representation should reflect that. Any attempt to redraw district lines in a way that disproportionately silences one party's voices is not just unjust—it is un-American.

We must demand a fair redistricting process that is inclusive, transparent, and accountable to the people. Representation should not be a privilege reserved for the powerful—it is a right guaranteed to all Texans, regardless of political affiliation.
