Message:

As a native Texan, I am deeply disappointed and strongly opposed of the proposed redrawing of district lines as it threatens fair representation and Texan democracy. Every Texan deserves their right to have their voice and vote properly counted and the recent, racially motivated gerrymandering efforts significantly undermines that right. I sincerely hope that the Texas Legislature and especially the representatives we vote for who are meant to represent us, their constituents, reject redistricting proposals that weakens Texans' voice. Texas should be fairly represented and anything less than that is an injustice and unconstitutional. The Texas government is meant to set the state up for continued, future success and not drag us into the past.
