Message:

Respectfully, I would like to use my right to make my voice heard and strongly oppose the redistricting. I think it will silence Democrat voices and ultimately favor Republican views. I know Texas is a Red State, but both parties should have their opinions viewed and valued. Redistricting to increase Republican influence is an attack on democracy. I would have the same opinion if redistricting had the goal of increasing Democrat influence. We must keep the values of democracy that our country was founded on so as to avoid unchecked control. Anyone who truly values American ideals would agree. Thank you for your time.
