Message:

I am writing because, as a born and raised Texan, I am extremely concerned about the redistricting process proposed by President Trump and supported by Governor Abbott. As President Trump himself has said, this is deliberately partisan effort in order to ensure additional Republican seats in the House. If this redistricting succeeds, Texas will be establishing an extremely dangerous precedent — one that erodes our democracy and flies in the face of the Voting Rights Act. While I know many state officials are under intense pressure from the President, I hope you will stand up for what's right and oppose this redistricting process. Myself and fellow Texans are counting on you and need urgent action.

Thank you for your time,
Katarina
