Message:

I'm writing to express my strong opposition to the newly proposed redistricting plan. I urge you to vote no and to prevent this plan from moving forward.

Redistricting should be about fair representation for all Texans—not about drawing boundaries in a way that favors one group over another. When district lines are manipulated for political gain, it weakens our democracy. It dilutes the voices of communities, divides neighborhoods, and undermines the principle that every vote should carry equal weight.

Texans deserve maps that reflect our true diversity and geography, not ones drawn to protect political power. I'm asking you to stand for fairness and transparency by rejecting this plan.
