Message:

This redistricting is not supported by any constituents that I have personally talked to and it is not something I support. Gerrymandering is an inappropriate way to distribute districts and in turn votes and should be not only illegal but also heavily reprimanded. The representatives that support these actions only further prove that they are not representing the best interest of the people they are supposed to be working for. As a result, I will have to take my votes to political parties and individuals that do represent the people and represent what is best for ALL Texans. These actions are simply the way you choose to show voters who they shouldn't be voting for at election time. Anyone in support of gerrymandering will not get my vote and I will be actively campaigning to ensure they lose votes from anyone I can come in contact with as well.

If this was such a value add to the people of this state, put it to a vote by the people, not the representatives who are only taking action based on their own agendas and benefit. Hold more hearings and meetings to allow people to share their voice and testimony. The slick tricks of voting in the middle of the night and no broadly published meeting notices and short turn arounds and limited locations is wrong. Just like I tell my own children if you have to be sneaky or lie or cheat about what you are doing then you know it's wrong to begin with. You should be ashamed if you are intentionally being deceitful and voting for the things that will set your constituents up for ruin rather than for success. If this was really about what is right and what is best, they you wouldn't have to do it in such a deceptive and deceitful way.

Holding hostage the real important topics until you get your way is childish and selfish. Much like Governor Abbott withheld teacher and school funding until he got his way with school vouchers, the Republicans are coming across as spoiled children not willing to share and getting upset when no one wants to play with them anymore. Throwing temper tantrums and making power grabs are definitely not a good look. Voters are paying attention to what side of history you will be on in this debate and over the next four years. And they are remembering who actually represented their best interests...and who didn't. They won't forget come election time again.

Stop this insanity and do the right thing. If any redistricting is to take place it should be to undo all of the gerrymandering that had been allowed to take place since the beginning. Do the right thing by your constituents and not just by what makes you the most money or gets you the most reward. Put your districts and your people first. They do not stand with you to n redistricting. The votes will reflect who did the right thing to oppose this gerrymandering and who didn't.
