Message:

I am opposed to the proposed redistricting plan. I believe our state's legislature should be servants of its constituents, not servants of the federal government. There are no calls to redistrict from the people, so it is clear the purpose of this plan is simply to serve the President. I feel like time would be better spent on fixing emergency preparedness issues in Central Texas. It's disappointing to see the priorities of the current leadership ignore the real needs of Texas.

It is also clear that this is a move to silence opposing viewpoints. A country founded on the democratic values of free speech and voting rights should not be limiting voices that disagree. The best ideas come from challenging one another and opening our minds to potential blindspots in our own narrow focus. This redistricting plan will move us away from good governance and the freedoms we hold so dear.

I believe in democracy. I believe both parties bring important ideas and concerns to the table. There is no good that comes from silencing opposition. It is not the American way, and I believe strongly in America. I urge lawmakers to leave voting districts in place.
