Message:

I strongly oppose plans to Redistricting the state of Texas. The proposed maps will unfairly silence the voices and votes of minorities and people living in big cities like Houston. This is gerrymandering, plain and simple. It violates the Voting Rights Act. More than that, Texas has many issues right now that need to be addressed — most notably climate change and flood preparedness; focusing on redistricting right now is a distraction from issues that have actually cost 137 people — many of them children — their lives.
