Message:

Senators,

I join the vast majority of Texans who oppose the redistricting legislation that is being considered. Rather than appeasing the power-grabbing whims of a dictator, you should be focusing on the most important issues in our great state: flood relief, emergency and natural disaster preparation, water projects, etc.

It is frustrating to know that you are wasting this special session on gerrymandering when you could be taking steps to protect your constituents from further harm and destruction.

Vote against redistricting and get back to work on the priorities of the people.

Sincerely,
Laura Weaver
Spring
