Message:

The idea of redistricting districts that's republicans drew in 2021 is absolute nonsense. You already tried to gerrymander the state in your favor in 2021 after the census when it is allowed. If you did not get the votes you expected, then maybe you should take a moment of self reflection and realize that the people voting are not the problem. You are. Not only is this an assinine attempt at oppressing the vibrant and large minority communities in Texas, but you are also leveraging the deaths of children and other citizens of Texas who died in the recent floods. Burying the implementation of weather alert systems behind the redistricting vote is cruel against the texan who voted for you and trusted you to keep them safe and act on their interest. You are meant to represent ALL Texans. If you go ahead with this redistricting you are only proving that you represent yourself.
