Message:

I am very much against redistricting of Texas. Regardless of party lines, Republican vs Democrat, I do not believe our state should bend to the will of a president and effectively take away the voice of the people. As a lifelong Texan I do not recognize my state right now with so much push to please those in power and forgetting or shirking the duty of what being a public servant truly means. It means you speak for ALL people in your districts. This bill seeks to silence, it seeks to repress, and its sole purpose is to please a tyrant. Do not forget that in your positions you work for the people. Not presidents, not banks, not the billionaires, the people.
