Message:

I'm appalled at the blatant power grab that is the republican bid for redistricting. As a life long texan I value the freedom of all texans to make our voices heard and have our votes count for something. Redistricting to clearly strip us of our freedoms and make our voices less powerful is unjust and non-american, regardless of political party. It's not fair to decide for us when we are the ones footing your paycheck. This is shameful and I urge you to do the right thing for our state and it's people. At this rate, remove all the gerrymandering and let Texans speak for themselves.
