Message:

I strongly oppose any redistricting efforts in Texas that seek to diminish the voice of voters through partisan gerrymandering. Manipulating district boundaries to favor one political party undermines our democracy, dilutes the power of communities and denies fair representation to millions.

Every vote should count equally. Every Texan deserves an opportunity to elect leaders who truly reflect their values and needs. When districts are drawn to serve partisan interests rather than the public good, it erodes trust in government, discourages civic participation, and weakens the foundation of our democratic system.

Texas is a diverse and rapidly growing state. Our political maps should reflect that diversity and not suppress it. I urge the Legislature to reject any redistricting plan that prioritizes political gain over fair representation.
