Message:

I encourage Texas legislators to put country and democracy before partisan interests by refraining from a Gerrymander of the state's electoral map.

All people who care about democracy enough to vote--whether Democrat or Republican--want their vote to count as much as the next. By asking the Texas state government to redraw the districts in a way that favors Republican votes and dilutes Democratic votes, President Trump seeks to further divide Americans and sow seeds of distrust in pursuit of his own unchecked power. Gerrymandering is wrong for America and destructive for democracy, whether it is done in blue states or red.

I urge Texas to block the president's unfair power grab and preserve a path toward free and fair elections for all Americans.
