Message:

I realize that you won't actually read, listen to, or comprehend most of the testimony you are receiving against this ridiculous cow towing to Abbott and Trump, but maybe there will be a recognition of the sheer amount of Texans who are tired of the BS.

STOP!

The Texas redistricting bill undermines fair representation by diluting the voting power of communities of color, despite their population growth. It prioritizes partisan advantage over democratic integrity, violating the principles of equal representation and potentially contravening the Voting Rights Act. This gerrymandering entrenches political power rather than reflecting the will of the people.

You know this. You know it's wrong!
