Message:

I am a hardworking woman residing in this beautiful state. I STRONGLY OPPOSE to the gerrymandering of districts because we all pay the same taxes, you need to be reminded of who you serve, the power and final decision resides on us the people who ultimately will suffer the consequences, you are public servants filled with greed. Instead of wasting time and money to break the law to gerrymander use that money and resources to help the people that has been affected by the floods, the children that need access to a home and healthy food, to the homeless that wander the streets of Dallas. This that you are attempting to do does not reflect the traditional Republican values like honesty, integrity and family but the exact opposite. Is oppression against the poor.
