Message:

I am Linda Ritzen, a voter in Texas Senate district 14, and I object to redistricting at mid-cycle. Texas lawmakers themselves wanted to avoid it, trying to avert current litigation by claiming that it was not racially oriented. Now, however, with a big push from the Trump administration, our governor and others have decided to bow down and take a chance on possible losses in hopes of gaining him the magic five seats he demands. A complete and fair overhaul of the districts cannot be accomplished in the short time available, so it's a rush job with inadequate (if any) public comment that will result in even worse distribution than we now have. This is a task to be accomplished in 2030, not now. Don't disappoint the citizens of Texas by giving in to unreasonable demands from the White House.

Thank you for listening.
