Message:

As a Texas voter, I am strong opposed to this redistricting effort that perpetuates partisan and racist gerrymandering and suppresses the voices of citizens, especially of minority communities in Texas.

This is a direct attack on representative democracy. Texans like myself are sick of political games and manipulation - we have great distrust of any politician that supports power grabs like this. These proposed redistricting maps systematically pack and crack Latino, Black, and AAPI voters who have contributed hugely to the state economy and communities - as an Asian American, I am disgusted that this legislature seeks to silence my voice.

These maps are unethical and unconstitutional. The Voting Rights Act exists to protect against precisely this kind of manipulation, and I urge the Senate to uphold its spirit and its law.

Fair maps mean competitive districts, honest representation, and trust in our democratic process. I call on you to reject any maps that are drawn to entrench partisan advantage or silence marginalized voices. Instead, draw fair apolitical districts that reflect the true diversity and will of the people of Texas.
