Message:

Why, at a time when Texas is still grieving the losses and devastation of the flood, why are we trying to redistrict? We should be focusing on healing and rebuilding. Greg Abbott is using the deaths of the flood victims for political gain and in turn diluting the voting power of minorities in these districts. It is unethical and unconscionable. These meetings are being held before proposed maps are even available, what are you all trying to hide? If your previous maps were "race-blind" why the rush to redraw before the midterms? Abbott is making a deal with the devil and anyone that supports this is doing the same. Texans will not forget.
