Message:

I think it's extremely unfair to redistrict Texas. If republicans are so great, then there is no need for this and Texas will stay red as it always been. But if the people of Texas want to change their party and/or vote based on the terrible policies the republicans help pass - then let us change it! This is a democracy, not a game you can suddenly change the rules on when you're losing. Let the people of Texas have a honest vote without interference. Republicans don't serve the people. They serve themselves and their terrible leader.
