Message:

I am alarmed by the current redistricting because it is so blatantly political, unnecessary, and for corrupt motives. The health of a democracy can be judged by the competitiveness of elections. Texas does not pass the test- only one district (out of 38) is competitive! That should be unacceptable to every Texan, especially those who purport to be public servants and who take oaths to protect and defend the interests of the people of this state. I cannot help but see the sick irony of Texas GOP officials who brandish the “come and take it” flag yet roll over immediately in submission to fulfill the demands of a corrupt, authoritarian administration currently in the White House. There is no shame in the Texas GOP and no vision beyond the short term debasement of government for corrupt purposes. Texans deserve better than the cynical, hollow (zombified) GOP that dominates state power. This extreme and cynical move to fulfill the corrupt requests of the president are unacceptable and will further tarnish the state’s reputation and hasten our backsliding on every measurable scale of democratic health and social and economic success and desirability.
