Hello,

I am a San Antonio Texas resident and constituent and I would like to state my opinion that I am 100% against the redistricting. These new redistricting lines would divide voters and cause more unrest amongst the Texas populations. These new districts would make it so that the Texas majority would lose their power to vote for the candidates that they want. Not only is it unconstitutional, it's deceitful and a disgrace to Texas residents. As a constituent I am angry and disappointed and will not stand for these unfair practices. By continuing this, you are ignoring the will of the Texas people.

I hope you see this as a learning opportunity and look inside yourself and do what's right. If you are unable to do that, then I'm truly deeply sorry for your moral well-being.

Thank you for your time,

Malena Earls
