Message:

I urge you to vote against this redistricting plan. It is grossly unfair. In Texas statewide races, Republican candidates tend to garner about 55% of the vote and yet these maps would give Republican candidates nearly 80% of the seats from our state in the US House of Representatives. One of our core principles as a nation is that one person gets one vote. These maps would make a mockery of that by giving some voters less than a full vote and others more than a full vote. The fair thing to do is to stick with the current maps and reject this effort at redistricting.

Sincerely,
Marc Airhart
