Message:

I strongly oppose the proposed redistricting plans in Texas. These maps do not reflect the true demographics or interests of our diverse communities. Instead, they appear to be drawn with clear partisan intent, diluting the voices of communities of color and undermining fair representation. Every Texan deserves an equal say in their government, and these gerrymandered districts violate the principles of democracy. I urge lawmakers to prioritize transparency, fairness, and public input, and to reject any redistricting efforts that do not uphold these values.
