Message:
I strongly support Plan C Redistricting for Congressional Districts.

I have been a fierce supporter of President Trump since he came down the golden escalator with Melania a decade ago. Our Republican majority in the US House is dangerously slim. President Trump has just asked the Texas Legislature to move forward with redistricting to INCREASE that Republican majority. I do not know the exact structure of the redistricting proposed by HR 4, but it should MAXIMIZE our majority. The US Constitution provides for a census every decade, which generally requires redistricting thereafter. But it does not prohibit a state from doing additional redistricting between censuses. The Democrats play hardball against us at every turn, and they play CRIMINAL HARDBALL against President Trump. It's time for y'all to play LEGAL HARDBALL on this to increase our US House majority. Thank you, God Bless you, God Bless Texas, and God Bless America.

Rev. Mark Emerson
