Message:

As a native Texan, I have always been proud of our state's larger-than-life individualism, generosity of spirit and open hearts. In recent years, however, that has not been reflected in the leaders supposedly elected to serve all Texans, particularly in the unfair push for redistricting - whose sole purpose is to steal the voices of the voters who put you in power. Please do not use gerrymandering to rig elections in our state but allow them to reflect the true opinions of all Texans. Having lived under a regime that used that kind of coercion, sadly I see more and more trends to emulate such third-world disregard for democracy. You cannot let that happen. Your constituents - the people of Texas who vote for you - deserve fair elections, whether they vote for you or not.
