Message:

Gerrymandering suppresses the voices of those with viewpoints that differ from those trying to redraw districts in their favor. This country depends on the strength of multiple viewpoints contributing to shared goals. Running over your opponents is the coward's way to reach consensus. Without shared vision achieved through the difficult work of respectful discussion of difficult topics our society will fall apart. Be bold. Stand up for the rights of all people to have their voices heard! ( The other party did it is never an excuse for unethical behavior. )
