Message:

This mid-cycle attempt at redistricting is about increasing the number of Republican districts at the expense of communities of color in our State. It is brazen racial discrimination. District boundaries should be drawn to protect the needs of the communities within them, not to advance political greed. It is wrong for the Texas Legislature to redraw districts at this time when litigation is still pending on the 2021 redistricting. This is just a way for the Legislature to hold up our maps indefinitely, preventing racial minorities from ever seeing relief.
