Message:

I strongly oppose any redistricting efforts in Texas that systemically undermine the democratic process through the manipulative practice of gerrymandering. The red-lining of districts has historically harmed marginalized communities, including those I personally identify with, and continues to do so today. I urge you, as an elected official, to vote “no” on any such measures and to continue standing up for what is right and just for all of our beautiful communities across the great state of Texas.
