Message:

I'm writing because I care deeply about our democracy, and I can't stay silent while the proposed redistricting maps threaten its foundation. These maps don't reflect Texas, they distort it. They divide neighborhoods, weaken the voices of communities of color, and put political preservation ahead of the people's will. That is not representation. That is erasure.

EVERY Texan deserves to have their vote count equally. We are not pieces to be moved around for partisan gain. We are people, and our voices matter.

I'm asking you to reject these maps and choose integrity over power. Choose a process that honors transparency, fairness, and the true spirit of democracy. Texas is better than this...and we're watching.
