Message:

A vote to rig the electorate maps of Texas is immoral and should be illegal. I am ashamed of every Republican in this nation and especially the ones in Texas. There was a time that I voted for Republican candidates because I respected the idea of a balanced and conservative approach to government. Those days are long gone and I will never vote Republican again because the party has shown that it is corrupt, racist and only interested in destroying the lives of the people that they are supposed to be representing. I am glad the Democrats in Texas used the only means that they had available to protect their constituents. I am proud of them and I am ashamed of Abbott. Please remember that just a few years ago the Texas legislature rightfully try to impeach Paxton. All of you should grow a conscience and stand up to these two men who are not just destroying us but they're destroying you. I look forward to the day when none of the Republicans who were in office now are even remembered.

This is shameful. You think
Texas is great and wonderful.
You are wrong.
