To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to express my concern and state that I do not support redrawing Congressional maps in Texas.

Texas' maps were revised four years ago, and typically are redrawn every ten years following the census. President Trump explained, however, that he wants Texas to redraw the maps now so that Texas will send five more Republicans to Congress (and five fewer Democrats). That would mean changing Texas' 38-member Congressional delegation from 25 Republicans and 13 Democrats to 30 Republicans and 8 Democrats.

I consider this redistricting effort to be highly suspicious and an attack the rights of Texas citizens to choose the people we want to represent us in government, and I do not support it.

Thank you for considering my comments,
Dr. Michelle D. Casper
