Message:

The use of redistricting of voting districts has for centuries to silent those with a strong enough voice to counter the precedent. In this the precedent is toxic conservatives rhetoric that is devolving our state as it stands. Gerrymandering, as this is well and truly what will occur if the districts are redrawn, is harmful to the Texan people and voting confidence of our residents. I urge you, as a Texan born and lived resident who cares about her district, government, and policies, break hundreds of years of corruption through the direct overpowering of Texan voices through voting districts.
