Message:

Please stop this redistricting process. This is a blatant grab from the National Republican Party that proves that Texas politicians are incapable of thinking for themselves and standing up for the residents of this state. The voters of Texas will remember when your re-election comes up how little of a backbone was shown by Texas lawmakers who caved to national pressure. You deserve to lose your seats over this. Stop wasting your time and start worrying about representing the people you work for—the people who actually live here.
