I'm appalled by the behavior of the Texas Legislature and the unprofessional behavior of the House Democrats, lack of control by the House Speaker and MOST of the House Republicans. Texas, once regarded as the gold standard of the states, has become a laughing stock to the entire nation.

As I understand it, the redistricting data was available and ready to be voted on when the House Speaker gaveled the House out rather than conducting the business at hand. Speaker Burrows enabled this Democrat walk out and added fuel to this predictable move by appointing Democrat Gene Wu to the redistricting committee.

Republican voters are fed up with weak, inept 'leadership'. We will be actively supporting new Republican candidates in the upcoming primary, top-down. We can no longer tolerate a weak Republican Party in the state of Texas.
