Message:

Redistricting at this time is wrong. Any changes in the population of Texas certainly doesn't warrant a change until the next census in 2030. This is a blatant grab for power by the very people who have been eroding personal rights, freedoms, for all Texans for years now. I applaud our Democratic leaders for drawing the line in the sand. The white trifecta that is the governor, Lt. governor, and the State attorney general need a reality check. Texas is made up of more than White Anglo Saxon men and so called Christians. I am a native Texan, white and I identify as female. I am a mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, niece, wife and widow. I'm appalled that this legislation is trying to dishonor the work that people like LBJ, the honorable Barbara Jordan and countless others from both parties who worked for all Texans not just themselves.
