Hello. I am extremely worried about even the thought about redistricting Texas. We already have to live in Trumps America, and we are already taking a nose dive into fascism. Texas has a lot more to offer than being a bully to its residents. Please allow for it's residents to feel like they belong here. America is already becoming unlivable. Why can't this state actually have a back bone and become great for EVERYONE and not just some? Why can't we lead by example? This is so full of manipulation and control... a truly sick person would change the districts to serve their own needs. Abbott doesn't care about Texans and it shows. We will be watching for the people who will truly stand up for us, no pun intended.

Randi
