Message:

Surely the Republicans in the Texas legislature recognize that although they have the power to disrupt our national elections with a completely ridiculous redistricting of national voting, the districts for state elections are not changing. The public has the power to remove the people who vote against us from state office at the next election. An ever increasing number of us recognize that we need the things that are being taken from us and we won't continue to support those who are doing the taking. A few billionaires may be able to buy your votes but they can't buy ours.
