Message:

As a born and raised Texan I strongly oppose the redistricting efforts that intend to manipulate the districts. This is obviously being done in the effort to quiet the voices of Texas Democrats and give an advantage to the other party. This will only make Texans dislike their state government even more than they already do. The goal should always be that every person in the state of Texas has an equal say in their state representatives, without outside manipulation manufacturing results with no care for constituents.
