With all due disrespect, Republicans have been in charge of this state for decades and the only direction we go is backwards. At what point do you all get tired of the games and schemes?

Did you go into politics with the intention of becoming monsters, keeping minorities and immigrants at a disadvantage?

We have tried it your way - clearly it doesn't work. It's time for Texas to move in a more positive direction aligned with the realities of working class people.

Leave things as they are or change them to make them more fair. Republicans have enough advantages and it's time we stop letting them cheat to get their way.
