Message:

As a tax-paying citizen of the State of Texas, I am writing to express my strong opposition to any redistricting efforts designed to unfairly favor one political party over another. I firmly believe that the manipulation of state district boundaries to silence or diminish the voices of voters—particularly those who support democratic values—undermines the very foundation of our democratic system.

The United States was built on the principle that every citizen's vote should carry equal weight, and our elected officials have a responsibility to uphold this standard. When district lines are drawn with the intent to secure partisan advantage, it erodes public trust, weakens fair representation, and compromises the integrity of our democracy.

Gerrymandering and other forms of district manipulation are unacceptable practices that do not reflect the democratic ideals we hold as Americans. I urge our leaders to protect the rights of all voters by ensuring that district boundaries are drawn fairly, transparently, and without partisan bias.

Respectfully,
Ricardo Almaguer
