Message:

Gerrymandering may offer short-term control—but it breeds long-term resistance. The most powerful leaders expand their base, not rig the field.

Redistricting now signals fear, not strength. If you want lasting influence, earn it with fairness and not manipulation.

History favors those who lead with vision, not those who redraw the lines to delay their fall.

And as any Southern woman will tell you bless your heart if you think Texans won't notice
