Message:

I disagree with the efforts to brazenly gerrymander Congressional maps. These efforts to do Felon in Chief's bidding, so that he can further disenfranchise voters and sway election results in his party's favor, are very questionable, unpopular and unnecessary, at the least.

The democrats who broke quorum have my full support. I applaud them for using a legal form of resistance against this unethical redistricting.

Republicans, do the right thing and focus on helping the people of Texas. Taking away their voice by diminishing their vote and allowing legislators to choose their constituents rather than constituents choosing their legislators is not doing the right thing. It's bending the knee to the federal administration that requested five additional party seats in the Lonestar, "Come and Take It" state. Don't forget where you came from and who you represent. It's the people of this state, not those in D.C.
