Message:

Dear Members of the Texas Senate,

I am writing as a concerned resident of Texas to express my strong opposition to the proposed restructuring of electoral districts. The current redistricting plan appears to dilute the voting power of historically underrepresented communities, particularly communities of color and lower-income neighborhoods.

This kind of gerrymandering undermines the principles of fair representation and equal voice in our democracy. Voters should choose their representatives—not the other way around. District maps should reflect genuine community boundaries, shared interests, and demographic realities, not partisan advantage.

I urge the Senate to reject this proposal and prioritize transparency, equity, and public input in any redistricting efforts moving forward.

Sincerely, Rosa Paul
