Message:

I say no to redrawing five additional GOP districts. GOP already has a majority of seats. Lines should be done democratically.

The most recently drawn maps were done in 2021. It is 2025. Texas like all other states draws lines every ten years after the census shows who has moved.

The Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton has already claimed in letters to the US DOJ that districts in TX. have been drawn "race blind" and that no constitutional concerns exist in reference to current existing maps. Hence, there is no need to list it as an agenda item.

There is no need to add 5 additional GOP seats which will possibly involve slicing up Democratic districts which are mostly Black and Hispanic. These groups are already under-represented.

This would be a form of disenfranchisement and provide voter confusion and discouragement to prospective voters.
