Message:

I'm a concerned voter and resident of Texas.

I'm writing today to express my strong opposition to the proposed redistricting of our congressional districts. I'm deeply concerned that these maps will dilute the voting power of people of color and weaken fair representation in our state.

Redistricting should reflect the diversity of Texas, not silence it. We deserve maps that protect voting rights, ensure accountability, and give every community a fair chance to be heard.

I urge you to oppose any redistricting plan that discriminates against Black, Latino, Asian, or Indigenous communities and to advocate for a transparent, inclusive process.

Thank you for your time. I hope you will do what's right for all Texans.

Rosalyn Antoine
