Hello,

I am a Texan, born and raised. I love my state, I love what Texas represents to the world and the United States of America. As a proud Texan who frequently travels outside of our great state I can say with absolute certainty that Texas is not great in the eyes of others.

The redistricting of our state needs to stop. Every Texan deserves to have their votes reflect the officials they want, the ideals they want and their voices heard. I do not support the republican redistricting to disproportionately affect people of color, minorities and low income individuals. It is our right as citizens to elect officials that represent our values. Our current officials do not. Again, I strongly oppose the attempts to redraw legislative districts that undermine fair representation.

Thank you for your time.
