Message:

This is unfair and a travesty to not only the voters but to our rights as the people who this effect. Has this become what our country is about (cheating) to win. I used to be so proud of our state, but as late it has become so disappointing by so many treacherous deeds that has been committed. It has become (a what can I do for myself and the powerful people who back you.) It no longer has to do with what's best for our state or the people you're supposed to represent. We need to and will clean house on Election Day.
