Message:

I am writing to strongly oppose the redistricting maps being presented in the current special session. Representation in government should always reflect the people being represented. It is not ethical, nor fair, nor right, nor just to rig any election to favor a particular party, a person, or any other thing. It's wrong if Democrats do it; it's wrong if Republicans do it. It's wrong.

If the people choose to elect representation that causes a political shift or changes in party leadership, then that is a win -- for the people. The people are the owners of the rights, not the governor or president or other elected officials.

Just do the right thing. Oppose the maps. Draw reasonable ones when asked. Conduct fair campaigns. Treat each person like a human being. Be civil. Agree to disagree but do not hate. Thank you.
